ICOM-ICMAH conference on « Corporate museums »

Round Table

Tools and manufactured objects now have a status of collections, preserved in museums, restored, and exhibited in the same way as paintings, sculptures, and works of art. Technical museums, public and private, highlight them as science museum. In the same way, Sports museums highlight a specific aspect of humanity's heritage which deserves to be shared and transmitted.

Report on

CLUB MUSEUMS

October 12th, 2018, Istanbul

The history of sports extends as far as the people's training for military purposes, for getting fit and useful in the work and for the competing purpose in the community life. From Neolithic periods to modern times, the different forms of representations of sports and games as well as tools used for the purpose got place in the archaeology and history collections and museums.

The sports and their evolution constitute a way of understanding the social history and the communities' life styles of living together. The material evidences of the sports are conserved and exhibited in museums.

ICOM / ICMAH being inclusive of the largest theme in museums will try to gather this highly few discussed subject all around the world and open a way of communicating about sports in the history and archaeology museums and collections.

ICMAH as a professional committee of ICOM organizes a series of workshop on "Sports in the Museums" since last year. The first workshop has been held in Nice, France on April 2017 and the second workshop has been in Baku, Azerbaijan on October 2017.

ICMAH organizes an annual conference on different themes on museums each year. This year's annual conference theme is the "Corporate Museums". For this occasion, the third workshop on "Sports in the museums" will be organized on "Club's museums / Club and Museum". This workshop will be realized with the collaboration of Beşiktaş JK Museum, in Istanbul, Turkey.

The third workshop's theme will mostly consist of museological and museographical aspects of the Club's museums and will also take into consideration the Club's histories and collections in museums.
